

Swimming Through Fear

Swimming through fear I reach out to you beyond the crashing surf Diving into the spiral of your love in the light beams dancing deep through the waters of antiquity.

Diving through the crashing surf into a spiral of light
You welcome me
with your love

I trust your love
I trust your voice
Inside me, I listen
And I follow my heart.
